Historical Note
A large part of the Sculpture Collection was originally displayed as an exhibit in Van Saun Park, titled “Sculptures in the Park,” organized by the New Jersey Cultural Council. There were two exhibitions, the first in 1971 and the second in 1974. After a series of vandalisms, the New Jersey Cultural Council asked Bergen Community College to host some of the sculptors. In 1974 a number of sculptures were moved onto the campus of Bergen Community College, some of them being temporary and some of them being permanently placed on the campus of Bergen Community College; Paramus, NJ. The Sculpture Collection also holds information on sculptures placed onto the campus that were not a part of the Van Saun Park exhibit.

Scope and Content of the Collection
The Sculpture Collection primarily contains materials from the two exhibits at Van Saun Park, “Sculptures in the Park,” (1971 & 1974); which includes the brochures, correspondences, maps, news clippings, and posters. In addition, the collection includes materials regarding the placement of various sculptures on the campus of Bergen Community College, such as correspondences, maps, news clippings, notes, photographs, press releases, and information about the sculptures and the sculptors. The works from the “Sculptures in the Park” include Carol Bacon (Two in One), Joseph Calabrese (Dominos), Peter Forakis (Unreflector), Forrest Myers (Polelock), Richard Shore (Updownstairs), Eric Snowden (Black & Red), Peter Tilnger (Cloud Gate), Odell Prather (Untitled), Max Soler (The Couple), Derrick Woodham (Gates). The Sculpture Collection also holds photographs, correspondences, and other information on sculptures placed onto the campus that were not a part of the Van Saun Park exhibit such as Albert Gross (Curved Obelisk) and Eric Snowden (Black & Red).
